

Supporting Beyond Win

Win is fortunate to receive many in-kind donations and volunteer hours each year. Below is information about other organizations that support homeless families in NYC if Win cannot accept your contribution.

List of New York City Organizations

- CAMBA provides essential services for New Yorkers facing challenging situations such as homelessness. CAMBA welcomes volunteers in all five boroughs for beautification projects, mentorship programs, and meal service. Learn more by calling (718) 287-2600 or visiting <https://camba.org/support/>.
- Cathedral Community Cares combats poverty through services, education, and advocacy. CCC operates a weekly Sunday soup kitchen and clothing closet on Manhattan's Upper West Side. They also welcome in-kind donations of casual & business attire in good condition. Learn more by calling (212) 316-7540 or visiting <https://www.stjohndivine.org/education/volunteer>.
- Goodwill NYNJ accepts a variety of gently used donations in all five boroughs. Goodwill offers pickups for large donations and drives (50 bags/boxes minimum). Pick-up services are also offered through TaskRabbit and College Hunks Hauling. Learn more by calling (718) 777-6320 or visiting <https://www.goodwillnynj.org/donate-goods>.
- Housing Works provides advocacy and support services for people living with HIV/AIDS. A complete list of accepted in-kind donations and drop-off locations can be found on their website. Learn more about engagement opportunities by calling (347) 473-7400 or visiting <https://www.housingworks.org/donate>.
- Rauschenbusch Metro Ministries coordinates programs in Manhattan to support vulnerable community members. These volunteer initiatives include food service, gardening, food pantry distribution, youth literacy support, and clothing distribution. Learn more by calling (212) 594-4464 or visiting <http://rmmnyc.org/connect/volunteer>.
- The Bowery Mission has served homeless New Yorkers since the 1870s. Aside from offering numerous volunteer opportunities, The Bowery Mission also accepts in-kind donations. They accept new and gently used clothing, food, hygiene items, new linens, among other items. Learn more by calling (800) BOWERY-1 or visiting <https://www.bowery.org/get-involved/>.
